PERSONAL NOTES

Earned the 2006 All-American Scholar Award and was a nominee for 2007 Young Leaders of America ... Recently raised more than $400 for the National Multiple Sclerosis Society ... Has skated in shows supporting Hurricane Katrina, Blades Against AIDS and Edge Out Of Cancer ... Also works on food drives for her church and attended Buddy Bear Camp for disabled children ... Volunteered at Harlan Elementary School to present the sport of figure skating on career day ... Favorite country to travel to is Italy because the sights are beautiful and the shopping is amazing ... What sets her apart from others is her ability to hit more curbs than anyone else while driving, tripping while walking and her obnoxious laugh ... Prizes her faith above all ... Says not many people know she still watches the Disney Channel ... Biggest life-defining moments were sending a disabled child to camp and receiving a standing ovation at the U.S. Championships after her short program ... Would like to meet speedskater Joey Cheek because he is one of her favorite athletes who donates some of his earnings from the Olympic Winter Games to charity, and Beyonce because "she is an amazing artist, person and diva" ... Listens to the "Dream Girls" soundtrack, MC Supreme, North Side and many more ... Motto is "There's no trying; there is just doing."

SKATING NOTES

Goals for the season are to perform more clean programs at competitions ... Began skating at age 6 because her father and brother took her to Penn's Landing in Philadelphia ... Her brother, Ed, continually beat her in races, so she kept skating to be faster than he was.

SKATING NOTES

Cohen began skating at age 7 with a friend ... was the first U.S. woman since Tara Lipinski in 1998 to win gold at the ISU Grand Prix Final (2003) ... Missed the 2001 U.S. Championships due to a lower back injury ... The same injury forced her to withdraw from the 2004 Grand Prix Series ... Has landed quadruple jumps in practice - one of the first women in the world to do so ... One quad was captured on camera by ABC during practice at 2001 Skate America ... Due to age restrictions, first appearance at the World Championships was not until 2002 - a month after her fourth-place finish at the 2002 Olympics ... Skated with John Nicks when she was younger ... In 2003 moved east to train under Tatiana Tarasova ... In December 2003 decided to work with Robin Wagner, former coach of 2002 Olympic champion Sarah Hughes ... Returned to Nicks in December 2004 ... Retired from competition after the 2006 World Championships ... On May 8, 2009, confirmed that she will return to competition for the 2009-10 season in an effort to make the 2010 Olympic Team.

PERSONAL NOTES

Cohen's given name is Alexandra Pauline Cohen - Sasha is a Ukrainian nickname for Alexandra ... She has one younger sister, Natasha ...

Mother, Galina, was born in Odessa, Ukraine ... Long-term goals include working as a fashion designer or in the entertainment industry ... Played herself in a 2006 taping of NBC's "Las Vegas" ... Guest judged an episode of Bravo's "Project Runway" in which the designers created skating dresses for her ... During the summer of 2006 acted in the indie film Moondance Alexander as a high schooler who rides horses ... Stars in a pair of commercials for Simply Saline, a nasal mist that helps prevent colds ... Also shot a 2006 Got Milk? commercial ... Was on her school honor roll and has won various gymnastics awards ... Was a successful gymnast before taking up figure skating, but says she wasn't focused enough for the dangerous elements; at age 7 she did a backspring series without noticing a four-inch beam in her path and luckily sprung over it ... Works with multiple charities including Girls Inc., for teenagers in need, and the Connecticut Children's Medical Center ... Has a dog named Mocha and cats named Mia and Meow ... Has appeared in the high-fashion French V magazine, Seventeen magazine and Vogue ... Was featured in the comic strip "Big Nate" by Lincoln Pierce ... Shared her cell phone with President Bush on international TV at the Opening Ceremonies of the 2002 Olympic Winter Games ... Minutes before taking the ice for her free skate at the 2002 Olympic Winter Games, she realized she didn't have her tights and borrowed those of Japan's Fumie Suguri, who had just gotten off the ice ... Off ice, trains with ballet, stretching classes and Pilates ... Met the Queen of England when she performed at the 2002 Golden Jubilee to celebrate the queen's 50-year reign ... Hosted three on-ice clinics for the Marshalls SkateFests in the fall of 2004 ... Teamed with the Women's Sports Foundation to encourage girls to apply for the 2006 Sportsgirl Award; the Sportsgirl program honors 50 young female athletes, one from each state, who excel in their sport of choice and demonstrate superior leadership skills on and off the field of play ... Describes herself as spunky, deliberate and focused.

SKATING NOTES

Goals for the 2009-10 season are to medal at her Grand Prix assignments and make the Olympic Team ... Began skating at age 6 when she followed her older sister, Natalie, to skating lessons after watching the 1994 Olympic Winter Games ... At the time, she was also a gymnast, but she chose skating two years later when combining the schedules became too demanding ... Landed her first triple Lutz-triple loop combination in competition at the 2003 U.S. Championships; it was the first time a U.S. woman landed the combination in competition ... Former coaches include Tiffany Chin from 1994-2004 and Christy Ness from 2004-05.

PERSONAL NOTES

Has won numerous piano awards, including a bronze medal at the Southern California Junior Bach Festival in September 2002 ... Learned her first Mozart concerto at age 6, only six months after starting lessons ... Performed as the soloist with the Pasadena Summer Youth Orchestra when she was 9 ... Has been a straight-A student every year since the first grade ... Was the ninth-grade valedictorian ... Teaches piano lessons part time and volunteers as a Sunday school teacher ... Favorite countries to travel to are Japan and Korea ... Has a passion for God, and says her faith sets her apart from others.

SKATING NOTES

Goal for the 2009-10 season is to take his skating to the next level ... Began skating at age 5 after seeing the 1994 Olympic Winter Games with Nancy Kerrigan, who is from his local area in Massachusetts ... Was also encouraged by a doctor at a young age to participate in skating or gymnastics after constant ear infections ... Mom put him in hockey skates to learn and soon discovered that he had a talent for figure skating ... Began in the U.S. Figure Skating Basic Skills Program in Stoneham, Mass. ... Has skated in shows with Kerrigan.

PERSONAL NOTES

Achieved a 5:25 mile ... Attends Boston College and is working toward a degree in pre-medicine ... Hobbies include playing tennis, listening to music, reading and going to the beach, working out and staying fit, cooking, traveling ... Biggest life-defining moment was coming in first at the 2007 World Junior Championships ... Wants to become a physician specializing in sports medicine ... Most prized possession is his iPhone ... His cousin, Caroline Hallisey, was a U.S. speedskater who competed at the 1998, 2002 and 2006 Olympic Winter Games ... Would like to meet Jessica Stam, because "she is gorgeous and super amazing, President Obama, because of the obvious, Lance Armstrong because he has fought against adversity more than once, and Tyra Banks because America's Next Top Model needs some serious updating" ... Music on his iPod includes Katy Perry, Keane, Coldplay, Sara Bareilles, Queen, Lang Lang and Rilo Kiley .. Loves cooking and experimenting with food; specialty is making pancakes.

Winter Games, they became the highest-placing U.S. dance team in history and first Olympic medalists in 30 years.

PERSONAL NOTES

Belbin and Agosto headlined the spring 2006 Marshalls SkateFest in Detroit ... Were featured in a two-page spread for Marshalls in the March 10, 2006, issue of US Weekly magazine ... Starred in an Acuvue Oasys commercial for contact lenses ... Team was singled out in a speech made by President Bush on May 17, 2006, during the Olympians' White House visit ... Belbin, originally from Canada, moved to the United States from Kirkland, Quebec, in 1998 ... Applied for a visa for "Aliens of Extraordinary Ability" (EB-1) in 2000 after creating an impressive profile of figure skating results with Agosto ... Got her Green Card two years later ... In 2002 Congress changed the rules to allow EB-1s to apply for their visas and Green Cards at the same time, shortening the time frame one waits for U.S. citizenship ... Because Belbin began her process before 2002, the new rules did not apply to her ... Senator Carl Levin (D-Mich.) introduced an amendment to an appropriations bill in the fall of 2005 to aid individuals in Belbin's position who applied for EB-1s before 2002 ... The amendment passed through Congress on Dec. 22, 2005 ... Belbin received her U.S. citizenship on Dec. 31, 2005 ... In February 2005, Belbin and Agosto organized and skated in Skate Aid for Tsunami Relief, an ice skating show to benefit the tsunami relief fund for Southeast Asia, and raised $40,000 ... Team organizes the "Tanith and Ben's Home for the Holidays" ice show that raises funds to benefit the Karmanos Cancer Institute.

One of Belbin's hobbies is auto-crossing (car racing) ... Values her family above all ... Most prized possession is her American passport ... Is signed with Ford NY Modeling Agency ... Biggest life-defining moment was the passing of her grandfather ... Wants to pursue a career in broadcast journalism after her skating career, with hopes of hosting a news/entertainment show ... What sets her apart from others is her sense of humor, and she says most people don't know she's "just one of the guys" ... Has two dogs named Zigen and Maggie, and two cats named Spanky and Sierra ... Favorite country to travel to is Australia ... Has one older brother, Lucas ... Mother designs her skating dresses.

Agosto is originally from Chicago, Ill. ... Moved to Detroit in June 1998 to skate with Belbin ... Graduated with honors from Groves High School in June 2000 ... Hobbies include playing the guitar (including blues and Flamenco), scuba diving, horseback riding, rock climbing and mountain biking ... Also loves to go salsa dancing ... First concert ever was the Chicago Symphony Orchestra ... Best Halloween costume was The X-Men's Wolverine ... Would like to meet Bill Clinton to tell him he misses him ... Recorded the voice of a villain in a video game; has always wanted to be the goofy voice of some cartoon character ... Loves apple cider and Super Mario Brothers.

SKATING NOTES

Goals for the 2009-10 season are to improve skating ability, have fun training and compete confidently.

Pratt started skating when she was 6 - "My mother went to a Christmas show, and there was a free skate afterward, and she put me and my brother in it."

Obzansky started skating when he was 2 - "My grandfather had a lake house, and he would take my sisters and I skating on the lake every winter." ... Participated in the Basic Skills Program in 1993.

PERSONAL NOTES

Pratt is the second of five children ... Father works as a chiropractor ... Skated with Todd Gilles from 2002-06, winning the 2003 U.S. novice and 2005 U.S. junior titles ... Was coached by Patti Gottwein for six seasons ... Works part time as a skating coach ... Hobbies include reading Calvin & Hobbes books, reading gossip columns and spending time in the sauna with the girls ... Favorite place to which she's traveled for skating is Hungary - "I won my first JGP medal there, and the Danube was beautiful, as was the rest of the city." ... Biggest life-defining moment was moving to Canton, Mich., in 2008 ... Would want to be a contestant on "The Price Is Right" because "I'm good at guessing the price of things" ... Cousin played goalie for the University of Michigan hockey team ... Took a two-year hiatus from figure skating from 2006-08, during which time she was an office manager.

Obzansky has two younger sisters and a half brother ... Skated with Lydia Manon from 1996-2000, Kendra Goodwin from 2000-03 and Mimi Whetstone from 2007-08 ... Teaches ice dancing and learn-to-skate lessons ... Enjoys backcountry snowboarding in Utah, mountain biking in Michigan and surfing in Florida ... Favorite place to which he's traveled for skating is Zagreb, Croatia - "I loved the skating fans there; they were so supportive and energetic." ... Has a passion for accounting - "I'm very interested in how money works and how to manage it." ... Something that sets him apart from others is he's a Mormon ... Fluent in Russian ... Biggest life-defining moment is taking two years off from skating to serve a mission to the Baltic States for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints ... If he could be a contestant on any reality show, it would be "So You Think You Can Dance" because his "mission buddy" Benji Schwimmer won it in 2006 ... Wants to be a CPA and travel to Nepal or Peru after he's done skating ... One of his cousins played football at Notre Dame and another played in the Final Four ... Listens to a lot of country music, including Toby Keith and Trace Adkins ... If he weren't a figure skater, he'd be a pro snowboarder.

SKATING NOTES

Goal is to make the Olympic team ... Samuelson and Bates both participated in the Basic Skills Program ... Samuelson began skating at age 5 because she saw a girl skating while she was on vacation in Switzerland and wanted to try it, too ... Bates began skating at age 4 because his mom "lost him" every time she brought him to watch his sister skate ... She put him out on the ice where she could see him.

PERSONAL NOTES

Samuelson attends the University of Michigan ... Three-time winner of the Presidential Award for Educational Excellence ... Hobbies include reading, golfing, swimming, skiing and hanging out with friends ... State finalist for Miss Teen Michigan ... Volunteers at her church (Faith Community Presbyterian) ... Loves to travel ... Has a passion for helping others ... Fell at the 2003 Midwest Sectional and broke her two front teeth ... Fell at the 2007 World Junior Championships and was stepped on by partner Bates, severing the tendon in her middle finger and forcing the team to withdraw from the competition.

Has an older brother, Andrew, and an older sister, Alexis ... Alexis is a former skater who now runs marathons ... Father is a cardiologist and mother is an artist/interior designer ... Previously skated with Arielle Chudnofsky ... Attends the University of Michigan and is majoring in business ... Supports the Alzheimer's Foundation of America because his grandfather suffers from the disease ... Hobbies are playing the guitar, golfing and playing basketball.

SKATING NOTES

Goal for the 2009-10 season is to make the Olympic team ... Summersett began skating because her mother taught Basic Skills ... Formerly skated with Elliott Pennington from 2003-06 ... Gilles began skating at age 4 while trying out a bunch of other sports at the time ... Is the older brother of Piper and Alexe Gilles ... Piper is a competitive ice dancer, and Alexe is a singles skater ... Formerly skated with Trina Pratt from 2001-06.

PERSONAL NOTES

Summersett and Gilles have attended multiple anthropology classes together, the most recent being experimental archaeology.

Summersett began skating because her mother was a Basic Skills instructor ... Is the youngest of four girls, all of whom figure skated at some point in their lives ... Father is a dentist and mother is an occupational therapist ... Formerly skated with Elliott Pennington and was coached by Iveta Ice and Dmitri Boundukin from 2003-06 ... Attends the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs ... Hobbies include doing outdoor activities ... Favorite foreign city traveled to is Tallinn, Estonia, because "the old city was unbelievable every time we explored the cobblestone streets" ... Listens to artists like Annette Summersett, Tom Petty, David Bowie, Led Zeppelin and Smashing Pumpkins.

Gilles attends the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs and is studying anthropology ... Has a passion for music, the outdoors and history ... Says his biggest life-defining moment was moving to Colorado Springs ... Hobbies include playing electric guitar, hiking, camping and off-roading in his Defender 90 ... Would like to become an archaeologist, "and if that doesn't work out maybe a rock star or something like that" ... Favorite artist is Smashing Pumpkins ... Listens to all types of music, but mainly alternative ... Would like to meet Bill Murray because "I think he is hilarious."
